- Comment. Between 19 June and about 10 July 1953, Brandis airfield was occupied by a transport regiment and 6 Il-12s with one cargo glider each, in addition to the ground attack regiment previously stationed there. The army troops observed 25X1B southeast of the field, which [REDACTED] belong to units of the 20th Meck Div from the Jena/Weimar area and to the 39th Gds Mtz Rifle Div from Plauen, probably were involved in air landing and transport exercises held by the air transport regiment and the cargo gliders. The transports probably landed at Erfurt-Bindersleben airfield as was also observed in the preceding year. See
